

A New Day

with Bishop Edward L. Salmon, Jr.

Stewardship Conference, Diocese of Fredericton

16 and 17 October 2009, Trinity Church, Sussex

Parish clergy and lay representatives are urged to make this important conference a priority.

“Stewardship is boring. What’s exciting is being engaged by the vision of the Gospel.”

Bishop Edward Salmon

Friday, Oct. 16 - Preparing for the New Day (2:00 - 9:00 p.m.)

- Parish Clergy (all clergy are welcome) and Bishop Salmon have a “Conversation for a New Day” including evening dinner
- Accommodation will be provided for clergy from a distance

Saturday, Oct. 17 - Building the Team for the New Day (10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.)

- Billets will be arranged for lay participants who wish to arrive the evening before
- Welcoming muffins and coffee and lunch
- Clergy, at least two lay leaders from each parish (one should be a warden) and Bishop Salmon will discuss “Building the Team for the New Day”
- Lunch and snacks provided

$25 registration per participant covers costs. Parish corporations are encouraged to cover participant costs

Synod 2009 recommended a strategy for transformational change. Preparing clergy and lay leaders for change and a stewardship initiative are priorities

Parishes are asked to choose lay participants to this important conference carefully. The conversation for a New Day will enable us to begin the work that will lead to the transformational change necessary and identified by the Synod toward our mission together.

$25 registration per participant
