IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Marion Kennedy

Mrs. Marion Kennedy of the Parish of Restigouche was one of the first three women in the diocese elected to synod. She and her cohorts were not favourably received in the 1960s, but she persisted and times changed. When she died shortly after Synod 2007 she had been a member of synod for 40 years.

The Rev'd Canon Rhodes Cooper

Canon Cooper died 22 January 2009 in St. John's, Newfoundland, predeceased by his first wife, Margaret. He was educated at the University of Kings College receiving a BA and BSLitt in 1948 and an Honourary Doctor of Divinity in 1972, and ordained deacon 17 December 1947. During his 61 years of service he served the Diocese of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, as Dean of the Diocese of Fredericton and dioceses in Newfoundland and Labrador. He served on numerous General Synod and diocesan committees, and was elected eight times as a delegate of General Synod, and served as Anglican Formation Director at Atlantic School of Theology 1988 - 1990.
