

Anglican Diocese of Fredericton
ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Diocesan Council Mission Outreach Team

Brief Description and Mandate

Members are charged with the task of coordinating, communicating and supporting the mission work that takes place at both the diocesan and parish levels. We represent the diocesan-level groups that have mission-related responsibilities and we report regularly to Council. We take direction from the Bishop and Council and we look for and promote new mission and outreach initiatives within and beyond the diocese.

On-going Responsibilities and Reporting

- Contact with: PWRDF, Hospital Chaplaincy Support Groups, Companion Diocese Committee, Diocesan Missionary Society, Coverdale, Refugee Support, ACW, Anglican Church Homes in Sussex, Parish Nursing and Searfarers Mission.
- Regular reports to Diocesan Council

Membership

The Mission and Outreach team is made up of one Archdeacon, several Council members and others who are invited to join the team through the consensus of team members. Current members are: The Ven. Walter Williams, the Rev. Canon Bill MacMullin, the Rev. Canon Keith Osborne, the Very Rev. Keith Joyce, David Wilson, Ruby Ranson, the Rev. Jasmine Chandra, the Rev.
